Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sandy Jorgensen has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Sandy began her career for the Bureau of Personnel (BOP) on October 24, 1977, and has continued to be a dedicated employee working for BOP for over 32 years; and,

Whereas, Sandy was instrumental in several major human resource initiatives throughout her career, and she analyzes the work force always looking for new metrics; and,

Whereas, Sandy is a founding member of the Central States Compensation Association and is respected by her peers for her knowledge and patience; and,

Whereas, Sandy retains a wealth of human resource information and never forgets anything or anyone; and,

Whereas, Sandy's retirement days will, no doubt, find her traveling with George, gardening, spending time with family, dining at Perkins or having lunch at Jakes with Denny, or herding her cats while sightseeing the country; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor of the state of South Dakota to make special note of this dedicated state employee on June 4, 2010, to celebrate her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 4, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join her colleagues, friends, and family as they recognize and congratulate her on a long and successful career, and also wish her an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
